providing commentary on the controversial revisionist school of qur anic studies this book explores the origins scholarship and development of the qur an the collection of articles each written by a distinguished author treat very familiar passages of the qur an in an original manner combining thorough philology historical anthropology and cultural history this book addresses in a critical fashion the hottest issues in recent works on the quran among other things the contributors analyze the controversial theories of luxenberg regarding syriac and the quran and in particular his argument that the term hur refers not to virgins but to grapes drawing on legal and ad th texts from the formative and classical periods of islamic legal history this book offers an overview of the development of the questions prominent jurists asked and answered about women s issues all assumed a woman would marry and thus the book concentrates on women s family life the introduction establishes the historical framework within which the jurists worked a chapter on qur n verses devoted to women s lives is followed by chapters on marriage and divorce which compare the views of jurists during the formative period the fourth chapter describes the evolution from the formative to the classical periods the fifth uses material from both periods to describe the array of legal opinion about other aspects of women s lives in and outside their homes throughout jurists opinions are juxtaposed with relevant quotations from contemporaneous ad th collections was muhammad deceived by dark forces uncover the shocking truth about the founder of islam woe is me poet or possessed muhammad could one of history s most influential figures have been a vessel for satanic manipulation it s time to pull back the curtain on the origins of islam and the shocking unsettling accounts of its founder muhammad drawn directly from the most authoritative islamic sources the uncensored truth of islam s founder forget the sanitized biographies this e book provides an uncensored and uncompromised look at muhammad s life compiling over 1 000 direct hyperlinked quotations from the quran authentic hadiths sira literature and tafsirs these troubling accounts often unknown even to educated muslims form the core of this unflinching e book the evidence of demonic influence the e book lays out the compelling case that muhammad was demon possessed or severely demonically influenced examining his prophetic career through a critical clinical lens the cave of hira terror the alleged angel gabriel s first encounter left muhammad abused in mental turmoil and so terrified he became suicidal and feared he was going mad physical manifestations he exhibited bizarre physical behaviors twitching foaming at the mouth convulsing and making animalistic sounds like roaring or snorting mistakenly attributed to divine inspiration from gabriel or allah satan s voice the infamous satanic verses incident reported in islamic texts where muhammad uttered the words of satan black magic evidence that muhammad was under a black magic spell and even had a demonic spirit guide or familiar spirit morality under scrutiny if god is righteous and holy could he truly work through a person who sanctioned evil the author scrutinizes muhammad s deplorable morality and provides the sources for his involvement in child marriage his controversial consummation of marriage to 9 year old aisha at the age of 54 atrocious practices the sanctioning of wife beating sex slavery assassinations and torture was muhammad truly a perfect example for humanity when islamic texts document actions many would describe as cruel oppressive and tyrannical what spirit was truly moving behind him the broader implications satan s strategy this book is not merely an academic exercise the analysis is conducted by an expert with extensive experience in christian deliverance ministry expelling demons offering a unique informed perspective on the evidence the conclusion is chilling muhammad was clearly a false prophet of god the e book uncovers the ultimate purpose of satan s manipulation to establish a false religion designed to blind people s minds from the true gospel that jesus is the only begotten son of god who died on the cross for the sins of the world and was resurrected without the belief in the gospel there is no salvation an essential resource this comprehensive analysis is a vital resource for every truth seeker and an essential tool for those involved in christian apologetics and polemics arm yourself with a wealth of evidence and over 1 000 sourced references for refuting the religion of islam uncover the shocking truth after 9 11 madrasas have been linked to international terrorism they are suspected to foster anti western traditionalist or even fundamentalist views and to train al qaeda fighters this has led to misconceptions on madrasa education in general and its role in south asia in particular government policies to modernize and pacify madrasas have been precipitous and mostly inadequate this book discusses the educational system of madrasas in south asia it gives a contextual account of different facets of madrasa education from historical anthropological theological political and religious studies perspectives some contributions offer recommendations on possible and necessary reforms of religious educational institutions it also explores the roots of militancy and sectarianism in pakistan as well as its global context overall the book tries to correct misperceptions on the role of madrasas by providing a more balanced discussion which denies neither the shortcomings of religious educational institutions in south asia nor their important contributions to mass education the intention in compiling this brief commentary on the section of commercial law kitab al buyu from the mukhtasar of al quduri is to assist the layman and the early learner in understanding the various fihi terminologies and concepts in the manner laid down by the classical authors on hanafi jurisprudence a firm grasp of these fundamental concepts in the initial years of study will lay a solid foundation for a student to later build upon the more detailed books and also when applying his to contemporary issues of commercial law the compiling author has attempted to convey the explanation of the masail and indicate the background reasoning in a simple manner without excessive reference to technical jurisprudential terminology generally used by arabic commentators leaving this for the student to discover directly from these commentaries themselves or in later studies a challenge to the end of the shari a thesis in islamic legal historiography in the second half of the nineteenth century states across the muslim world developed new criminal codes and reshaped their legal landscapes laying the foundations of the systems that continue to inform the application of justice today influenced by colonialism and the rise of the modern state s desire to control its populations many have seen the introduction of these codes as a pivotal shift and divergence from the shari'a the dominant paradigm in premodern muslim jurisdictions in a continuity of shari a brian wright challenges this view comparing among the egyptian ottoman and indian contexts by examining the environment in which the new codes were created highlighting the work of local scholars and legal actors and examining the content of the codes themselves wright argues that the criminal systems of the late nineteenth century have more connections to their past than is previously understood colonial influence was adapted to local circumstances and synthesized with premodern understandings in an eclectic legal environment to create solutions to local problems while maintaining a continuity with the shari a this book will be of interest to scholars and students of islamic studies islamic law and islamic legal history
