why is the topic of religion so contentious since childhood everywhere he goes chacko sees a clash of heavens between people of different religions he was brought up in the christian mar thoma church in a small village in india in the 1940s and has practised christianity throughout his life however as he travels around the world from india to canada via ghana and witnesses political transitions and coups acts of terrorism and war and learns more about various religions he is drawn into deep discussions with friends about belief the bible and god was jesus really a historical figure why are there different versions of the creation story how does darwin s theory of evolution fit in why is god referred to as father and not mother or sister who is god along his journey of discovery and truth chacko meets angels from all walks of life who contribute to his outlook on humanity but also bring him to question himself even more will his quest ever end the clash of heavens a journey of discovery with angels explores the spiritual conflicts that can both disconnect and connect us from each other the courage it takes to question the beliefs you ve been taught in order to find your own truth and how religion has shaped the world from practices and folklore to beliefs and actions the conversion of the lands on the southern and eastern shores of the baltic sea by germans danes and swedes in the period from 1150 to 1400 represented the last great struggle between christianity and paganism on the european continent but for the indigenous peoples of finland livonia prussia lithuania and pomerania it was also a period of wider cultural conflict and transformation this collection explores the theme of clash of cultures from a variety of perspectives discussing the nature and ideology of crusading in the medieval baltic region the struggle between catholicism and orthodoxy and the cultural confrontation that accompanied the process of conversion historians have long understood the period 1100 to 1500 to be the key phase in the genesis of the modern state in this innovative work andrea gamberini examines the case of late medieval lombardy to show that the advent of the state did not extinguish the traditional values and principles of political cohabitation that had long been in place the aerial attacks on the pentagon and the world trade center a global spectacle of unprecedented dimensions generated an enormous volume of commentary the inviolability of the american mainland breached for the first time since 1812 led to extravagant proclamations by the pundits it was a new world historical turning point the 21st century once greeted triumphantly as marking the dawn of a worldwide neo liberal civilization suddenly became menaced the choice presented from the white house and its supporters was to stand shoulder to shoulder against terrorism or be damned tariq ali challenges these assumptions arguing instead that what we have experienced is the return of history in a horrific form with religious symbols playing a part on both sides allah s revenge god is on our side and god bless america the visible violence of september 11 was the response to the invisible violence that has been inflicted on countries like afghanistan pakistan iraq saudi arabia egypt palestine and chechnya some of this has been the direct responsibility of the united states and russia in this wide ranging book that provides an explanation for both the rise of islamic fundamentalism and new forms of western colonialism tariq ali argues that many of the values proclaimed by the enlightenment retain their relevance while portrayals of the american empire as a new emancipatory project are misguided adem area studies u of tsukuba japan shares the perspective of a non american student of international affairs by asking one question why and how do some discourses attain and others are denied a hegemonic status the aesthetic logical or moral quality of a specific issue has little to do with the status it attains he finds and he begins formulation of hypotheses on what is crucial annotation 2004 book news inc portland or booknews com
